
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASELindsey Architecture celebrates High Point Christian Academy's new gymnasium during the ceremonial groundbreaking

Greensboro, NC (April 27, 2023) – Last week, Lindsey Architecture celebrated the groundbreaking of High Point Christian Academy's new gymnasium, which is designed complete with an NCAA-regulation sized basketball and volleyball court, two cross courts, and bleachers. The groundbreaking event was held on Monday, April 17, 2023, from 3:00 – 4:00 PM at the project site. The 16,800-square-foot space is designed to hold up to 700 spectators and is scheduled to complete construction in summer 2024.

The free-standing gym also includes a full-length basketball court with two basketball cross courts, volleyball court, LED scoreboard, locker rooms, visitor changing rooms, public restrooms, concession area, storage rooms, athletic director's office, and the coach's office. The building will be built with metal wall panels and brick and is designed to aesthetically blend in with the existing campus.

Lindsey Architecture provided architecture and interior design services. The remaining project team is comprised of Samet Corporation, design-build contractor; Greensboro Engineering, LLC, mechanical, electrical, and plumbing (MEP) engineering; and, Structural Solutions, PA, structural engineering; and Hugh Creed Associates, Inc., P.A., civil engineering.

"We're honored to work with Samet Corporation and the rest of the project team to deliver this exciting project for High Point Christian Academy, faculty, staff, students, and the surrounding community," stated Sam Franklin, senior architect, Lindsey Architecture. "The goal for the gym is to create an indoor environment that will serve as the backdrop for enthusiast spectators, special moments and memories for student-athletes, and a home court advantage that is second to none. With the great work of the entire team, we will soon be able to say, 'Mission accomplished.'"
