
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASERodney Lindsey, AIA, NCARB, named a Top 15 executive on the Triad Business Journal's 2025 C-Suite Awards List

Greensboro, NC (July 7, 2025) – Lindsey Architecture is pleased to announce that Rodney Lindsey, AIA, NCARB, president and founder of Lindsey Architecture, was recently named one of the Top 15 CEOs/executives in the region as recognized by the Triad Business Journal's 2025 C-Suite Awards.

This honor celebrates the achievements from some of the area's largest, recognizable brands for their professional and personal achievements, impact on the community, leadership, volunteer engagement, among other qualifications. Awardees were nominated by their peers and selected in a competitive process by a third-party selection committee.

Rod founded Lindsey Architecture in Greensboro in 2008 and recently celebrated 17 years in continuous operation. He has grown the award-winning, one-person practice into a thriving architecture, interior design, and planning firm comprised of twelve employees, including four registered architects, two interior designers, project managers, an architectural designer, architectural technicians, accountant, office administrator, and marketing and business development talent. With over 30 years of architecture and leadership experience, Rod and Lindsey Architecture have helped shape the urban fabric of Greensboro and the Triad region with projects stretching across the southeast. His most notable clients include PTI, TE Connectivity, the Greensboro Science Center, the City of Greensboro, Statesville Regional Airport, Honda Aircraft, and dozens more.

"We are beyond excited that Rod is recognized as one of the Triad's Top 15 executives for 2025," stated Emily Hinton, AIA, DBIA, NCARB, vice president and principal of Lindsey Architecture. "This honor recognizes Rod's impact on the local region and beyond for more than 30 years, supporting numerous clients, communities, and partners to achieve their vision and organizational goals through the design of innovative, functional, and purposeful spaces. I am proud to collaborate with him and look forward to his future achievements.”

Fellow 2025 C-Suite Award winners include top executives from Piedmont Federal Bank, Biscuitville Fresh Southern, Hoffman & Hoffman, Inc., Verger Capital Management, Authoracare Collective, Syngenta, Accelerated Brands, and several others. Awardees will be officially recognized during a special event on July 24, 2025.
